Solidarity message to French railroad workers in occasion of 10th may huge rally in Paris called against social reform of Hollande Government.

, 09/05/2016

USB Transport of Italy is willing to address strong solidarity message to the french railroadworkers for their fights against the goverment reform of social law in occasion of the national demostration of next 10th of may.

We are supporting your struggle against privatization, jobs and wages cut and more flexibility, which is the same our struggle against same enemies.

We have to look forward to build stronger solidarity among transportation workers all over Europe with all the forces willing to stop privatization and UE politics.

Have a huge and strong 10th of may!
