USB on the side of the workers of Monaco on February 7

Nazionale, 05/02/2019

USB Italy express full solidarity and is on the side of the workers of the "Union des Syndicats de Monaco" who have called a general strike on Thursday, February 7.

The workers are fighting for a minimum wage in in accordance with the law established by ministerial decree, upgrading of all salary grids, recognizing the fair value to the creation of wealth by employees.

They fight for right contracts with an obligation to give reasons for dismissal restrictions on night and Sunday work, respect for decent wages.

Workers also demand a substantial increase in pensions, increasing the social security contribution of the employer, social security benefits, family allowances and other benefits.

International solidarity has been and is an indispensable practice for USB against the attacks on workers' rights.

Together we fight together we win
